

EARTHWATCH EXPO

Saturday 2 September, 2006
Abbotsford Convent

Earthwatch invites you to to our Conservation, Research and Education Expo at the historic Abbotsford Convent.

You can:

- Talk to leading scientists about global environmental issues
- Talk to volunteers about their Earthwatch experience
- Get information from a wide range of stalls
- Win door prizes – subscriptions, posters, guided tours of the Yarra, T-shirts and bird field guides
- Visit the Photographic exhibition 'Connect to the Yarra'
- Wander through the convent gardens

“COMMUNITY SCIENCE, THE ENVIRONMENT & GLOBAL ISSUES”

Meet practicing scientists such as Ian Bell, Dr Michael Mahoney, Dr Dan Metcalfe, Dr Alistair Melzer, Professor Nigel Stork and Mike Clarke.

Hear them talk about their work, the volunteer experience and different environmental challenges facing us today.

Exhibitors include Birds Australia with the new Atlas of Australian Birds, Melbourne Water, CERES, Greenfleet and River Keepers just to name a few.

When: Saturday 2 September, 2006

Where: Abbotsford Convent, Library, 1 St. Heliers Street,
Abbotsford Mel Ref – 44 G5

Time: 10.30am – 3.30pm

Cost: Non Earthwatch-members – $5

Earthwatch members – Gold coin donation

Children under 16 – Free

Complimentary refreshments available.

www.earthwatch.org.au

